

ISSN 1957-2968

CENTRAL BANK OF NIGERIA

PROCEEDINGS OF THE SEMINAR ON "Banking Sector Reforms and the Real Sector Development in Nigeria", FOR CBN EXECUTIVE STAFF AT THE VICHI GATES HOTEL AND SUITES, BENIN CITY, EDO STATE, NOVEMBER 29 - DECEMBER 2, 2010

SECTION I

ADDRESSES PRESENTED AT THE SEMINAR

Welcome Address by Victor I. D. Oligbo

Branch Controller, Central Bank of Nigeria, Benin Branch

Special Remarks by Sarah O. Alade, PhD (Mrs)

Deputy Governor, Economic Policy, Central Bank of Nigeria.

SECTION II

PAPERS PRESENTED AT THE SEMINAR

The link between the Financial (Banking) Sector and the Real Economy

Charles N. O. Mordi

An Overview of Current Banking Sector Reforms of the Central Bank of Nigeria and the Real Sector of the Nigerian Economy

Cajetan M. Anyanwu

Banking Sector Reforms and the Manufacturing Sector:

The Manufacturers' Association of Nigeria Perspective

Jide A. Mike

Banking Sector Reforms and the Industrial Sector:

The Bank of Industry (BOI) Experience

Evelyn N. Oputu (Ms)

A Statistical Survey of Productivity, Monetary and

Financial Indicators in Nigeria

Omolora O. Akanji (Mrs)

Financial Sector Liberalization and Challenges of Real Sector

Financing in Nigeria: The World Bank Perspective

Ismail Radwan

Lessons of Financial Sector Regulatory Reforms and Challenges

of Real Sector Financing in Nigeria: A Regional Perspective

Jonathan A. Aremu, Ph.D

Stimulating Real Sector Output through Research and Development:

The Nigerian Institute for Oil Palm Research (NIFOR) Experience

Celestine E. Ikuenobe, PhD

Microcredit Financing by Deposit Money Banks/Microfinance Banks

and the Agricultural Sector Development in Nigeria

Joe Alegieuno

The Central Bank of Nigeria Partnership with Alliance for a Green Revolution

in Africa (AGRA): Conceptual Issues, Operations and Prospects for Food

Security in Nigeria

Paul N. Eluhaiwe

Economic and Financial Review

Volume 48, Number 4

December 2010