Unveiling of commemorative N100 note postponed

The unveiling of the specially designed commemorative ₦100 banknote by the Central Bank of Nigeria (CBN), which was to have been performed by the President at the Federal Executive Council (FEC) meeting on Wednesday, November 5, 2014, has been postponed.

The postponement arose as a result of the trip of the President, Dr. Goodluck Ebele Jonathan, GCFR, to Ouagadougou, Burkina Faso, as part of a three-man delegation of Heads of State and Government raised by the Economic Community of West African States (ECOWAS) to mediate in the current political crisis in Burkina Faso.

A new date for the unveiling is expected to be announced soon.
