Central Bank of Nigeria Economic and Financial Review

Volume 57, Number 1, March 2019

Aims and Scope

The Economic and Financial Review is a quarterly publication by the Research Department of the Central Bank of Nigeria. The Review contains articles on research undertaken at the Bank, in particular, and the general public, mainly on policy issues at the macroeconomic and sectoral levels with a view to improving and enhancing policy choices. Its main thrust is to promote studies and disseminate research findings, to facilitate the achievement of these objectives. Comments on or objective critiques of published articles are also featured in the Review.
