

CENTRAL BANK OF NIGERIA, ABUJA, NIGERIA

JOB OPPORTUNITIES AT THE INTERNATIONAL MONETARY FUND (IMF)

The International Monetary Fund (IMF) is planning a Recruitment Mission to Nigeria on November 10, 2009. The Mission will identify suitable candidates for the Economist Program and mid-career stream. The Federal Ministry of Finance and the Central Bank of Nigeria are coordinating the recruitment exercise on behalf of the IMF.

The IMF is an international financial institution with competitive service conditions. The institution offers opportunities for professional development with challenging and rewarding assignments.

Applications are invited from suitable candidates to be considered for interview by the IMF Recruitment Team on November 10, 2009. Short listed candidates will be required to present themselves for interview at the 11th. Floor, Wing C, CBN Headquarters Building, Cadastral Zone, Central Business District, Opposite the National Christian Centre, Abuja, Nigeria.

Qualifications and Experience

Candidates for the Economist Program should possess MA or MSC degree in Economics with 5 years work experience. A PhD degree in Economics will be an advantage. Candidates may not be more than 33 years of age at end December 2009.

In respect of the mid-career stream, candidates should possess PhD degree in Economics with more than 5 years work experience. Candidates may not be more than 40 years at end December 2009.

Method of Application

Interested candidates should send their applications including detailed Curriculum Vitae to any of the following email addresses: cno_mordi@hotmail.com, pjobas@yahoo.com. The email addresses of candidates and telephone numbers should be included in the applications which should be sent as attachments.

Deadline for Submission

Applications should be submitted within one week of this advertisement. Applications received after October 30, 2009 will not be considered.

M. M. Abdullahi
Head, Corporate Affairs